This is an exciting time to join Magic Me. In 2018 we plan to grow our activities, within our home borough of Tower Hamlets across London, and into the east of England, trialling new approaches to intergenerational community building, and delivering an organisational wide digital strategy.

We are seeking dynamic, committed people to join our trustee board. We have up to two positions available

We welcome and encourage applications from people from all backgrounds and are keen to receive applications from BAME candidates.

We are seeking applications from people with expertise and experience, of organisational strategy, charity governance, community arts, education and care sectors.

The time commitment is around half a day a month to support Magic Me, its future and well-being.

Charity Trustees are, by law, volunteers. Reasonable travel, childcare and other expenses are offered.

Many thanks for your interest and time.

A: ABOUT MAGIC ME

Since its founding in 1989, Magic Me has pioneered intergenerational arts practice. Our story for the past 28 years has been one of innovation and constant evolution in the field of intergenerational practice, in direct response to the specific needs of the culturally diverse communities we serve across London. At the same time our award-winning approach and published research have earned us recognition across the country and internationally.

Magic Me's mission is to bring together younger and older people in our community for mutual benefit, learning and enjoyment. We do this primarily through high-quality arts projects, where people of different generations learn together and from one another.

Magic Me arts projects challenge young and older people to stretch themselves and what they think they can do and be. Working with highly skilled and experienced artists, they learn new skills, share their ideas and feelings, and become comfortable collaborating with people who are different in age, ethnicity or life experience.

All our activities are run in partnership with other organisations, large and small; we have run hundreds of projects with thousands of people in schools, care homes, galleries, museums, open spaces and community centres. We are a learning organisation - time for participants to reflect on their progress and CPD for artists are both integral to our approach

Magic Me Charitable Objects:

To promote, maintain, improve and advance the education of children and adults towards a better understanding of ageing and the needs of elderly people, and methods by which those needs may best be met.

Mission and Values

Magic Me's mission is to bring the generations together to build a stronger, friendlier community.

We do this by bringing together people of different ages as equals, with a shared creative purpose. For many, this is a new experience. Our activities provide a secure place in which to explore similarities and differences, and young and older people often find they have much in common. Creative activity is the focus for meeting and the process through which participants explore and share their ideas and feelings.

Finances

Magic Me is a registered charity with a broad funding base that punches well above its weight. Magic Me receives no core funding from public sources and relies on the generous support of a wide range of grant-making trusts, local authority grants, corporate supporters and individual donors. Our annual budget for 2017/18 is £387,000.

B: BECOMING A TRUSTEE

Who are we looking for?

Magic Me Trustees have a wide range of backgrounds, interests and experiences. Magic Me operates within many sectors and is keen to have a wide range of professional and community expertise from its Board, alongside excellent governance to support the charity to deliver on its mission and to safeguard its values.

The aim of our board of trustees is to govern Magic Me and enable the charity to be the best that it can be, steadfastly focused on achieving its vision, mission and purpose, so as to transform the lives of the beneficiaries we serve.

We are looking for trustees who can support the chair and director with the leadership of Magic Me.

You will act as an ambassador for Magic Me and promote our work at public events and more widely within the sector. You will be happy to make and use connections to advance Magic Me.

Our board is currently made up of eight trustees and we are looking to increase this to ten. We are keen to create more diversity on our board and ensure we continue to represent the people we work with.

We are looking for new Trustees to participate in the governance work of the board, who have a range of skills and a commitment to supporting Magic Me in a very practical way.

To complement current trustees we are particularly looking for people with experience in one or more of the following:

- Organisational strategy
- Charity governance
- Education
- Care sector
- Community arts

Our aim is also to have a balanced board, which includes people from the different communities, generations and cultures within which we work.

Legal position

Magic Me is a registered charity and trustees are legally responsible for its operations. Their role is to oversee the organisation, its staff and long-term strategic planning. Technically trustees employ the staff of Magic Me, who are responsible for most of the day to day running of the organisation. Trustees are also Directors of Magic Me Ltd, a company limited by guarantee. This is a way of ensuring that no trustee who has fulfilled the duties of their role is personally liable should the organisation become insolvent or have to close.

Magic Me's public liability insurance covers everyone who works for Magic Me, whether paid or unpaid, and this includes Trustees while working on Magic Me's behalf, as well as staff, freelancers and volunteers.

Trustees – Information Pack 2017

Trustees are elected at the AGM, usually held in October, by the members of Magic Me. Current Trustees may also co-opt new Trustees during the year between AGMs.

Practicalities

By law, charity trustees cannot be paid for their time and work. Trustees can claim reasonable travel, childcare or other expenses as necessary.

Time Commitment

Realistically to fulfil your role effectively, being a Trustee is likely to involve around half a day a month of your time.

- Trustees meet formally four times a year, usually from 6 to 8pm on a weekday evening at Magic Me's office in Bethnal Green. These meetings are held on different days of the week to accommodate people's other regular commitments.
 - Magic Me has three sub-committees on which trustees can serve they are: Finance and Risk Committee, Fundraising Committee and HR Committee.
 - Papers for meetings are circulated by email at least seven days before the meeting. Trustees are expected to prepare for meetings, having read and digested the papers in advance and be ready to contribute to discussions and decision making.
 - We also aim to hold an off-site away day each year to reflect on how we are working as a team, and to focus on big picture matters for the charity.
 - The AGM is held as part of Magic Me's Annual Celebration, usually in October.
